Event Overview:

Convoys totalling approximately 2950 vehicles have arrived in the NCR. Unknown number of vehicles in the downtown core. Approximately 750 people reported at this time on Parliament Hill and approximately 300 people on Wellington St. Mood remains positive.

Reports of a small convoy coming in from Arnprior, ON (20 vehicles).

Organizers have indicated that there will be speakers in Confederation Park on 2022-01-31.

The status of interprovincial bridges is as follows:

MacDonald Cartier has reopened to 2 lanes in each direction;

Alexandra Bridge remains closed;

Portage Bridge is closed in both directions due to demonstrations;

Chaudiere Bridge Southbound is closed; and

Champlain Bridge remains open.

Other Events:

K Division:

Coutts, Alberta: The POE in Coutts, AB continues to be impacted by a convoy protest. Alternate crossings have been opened, however, it is anticipated that it will take some time before the convoy is cleared and traffic is rolling smoothly. While the organizers have asked that people cooperate, some are not following the organizers requests. It is estimated that there are approximately 800 people at the POE. Discussions remain underway amongst all partners.

J Division (NB):

Information has been received suggesting multiple protests being planned throughout the province for 2022-01-31 with the potential to impact critical infrastructure.

No activity has been observed at the Houlton POE (NB/Maine), where it had been anticipated.

St.Stephen's convoy continues to engage in a 'slow roll', however the convoy is staying away from the POE's of Milton, Third Bridge, and Ferry Point. CBSA remains well engaged.
